DETAILED ACTION

Response to Arguments

Applicant's amendment filed on August 11, 2010 is acknowledged. Currently Claims 27-38 are pending. Claims 27 and 38 has been amended.

Applicant's arguments with respect independent claims 27-38 have been considered and are persuasive. Rejections regarding independent claims 27-38 have been withdrawn. However rejections under 35 USC § 112 have been made.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

The following is a quotation of the first paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall contain a written description of the invention, and of the manner and process of making and using it, in such full, clear, concise, and exact terms as to enable any person skilled in the art to which it pertains, or with which it is most nearly connected, to make and use the same and shall set forth the best mode contemplated by the inventor of carrying out his invention.

Claims 27-38 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, first paragraph, as failing to comply with the written description requirement. The claim(s) contains subject matter which was not described in the specification in such a way as to reasonably convey to one skilled in the relevant art that the inventor(s), at the time the application was filed, had possession of the claimed invention.

In regards to Independent Claims 27 and 38, there is no description of "predetermined error state patterns, each of said predetermined error state patterns defining a temporal sequence of error states at respective time points" in the applicant's specification.

There is no explicit disclosure in the applicant's specification in regarding the predetermined error state patterns containing error states with time points. The only notable disclosure of predetermined error state patterns is on Page 8, Lines 14-16; "The error states transmitted in the time span T are evaluated by the coordination module CM, whereby they are stored and compared with predetermined error patterns" which does not provide proper disclosure for the claim limitation "predetermined error state patterns, each of said predetermined error state patterns defining a temporal sequence of error states at respective time points"

Allowable Subject Matter

Regarding independent Claims 27 and 38, the Examiner found neither prior art cited in its entirety, nor based on the prior art, found any motivation to combine any of the said prior art that teaches: for said evaluation, said coordination module comparing the stored temporally successive error state pattern comprising said error states and the respective time points caused by said single causative error with predetermined error state patterns, each of said predetermined error state patterns defining a temporal sequence of error states at respective time points of a predetermined single error type, and determining at least one error type identifying said single causative error; The dependent claims are allowable due to its dependence to the independent claims.

Claims 27-38 would be allowable if rewritten or amended to overcome the rejections under 35 U.S.C. 112.

Conclusion

THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
